Advent is a season of waiting, expecting, and hoping. "Advent" is a Latin word and means "coming." We light this Candle of Hope today in anticipation of Christ's coming return and in remembrance of how his birth was promised and foretold since creation's beginning. The candles on the Advent wreath symbolize hope, love, joy and peace.

November Masses

The list for Holy souls of the faithful departed are prepared for you. I will celebrate masses for the deceased members of your family and loved one during the month. It is a practice that people make an offering for masses. This is one of the ways your support goes to your priest personally. Please pick the envelopes and return the list to me. Many thanks and God bless you.

Sunday liturgy & Readings

If you wish to have a look for guidance and preparation for Sunday reading, these are the recommended Sunday and feast day readings sites in 13 languages.

Advent Reconciliation: every Saturdays 11:30-12:00 pm

Resumption of Public Masses

From Wednesday 2 December public Masses should resume. Wednesday to Friday 11:am & Weekend as usual two masse Saturday & Sunday 11:am & 5pm.

Dear friends we must abide by the government rules and practice social distancing to safeguard & protect each other during these difficult times. Sunday Mass Obligation. It is important to reaffirm that the obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains suspended. Therefore, it is recommended a more appropriate way to consider frequently going for masses during the weekdays & weekend. It is something legitimate and we are allowed to do so with a sense responsibility to sustain our spiritual wellbeing. God bless you.

Collections/Offerings & tithes – standing order & Gift Aid

It is a recommended that you consider making a regular offering to our parish. The convenient way in which I encourage you to offer your donations by standing order or bank transfer. You may equally drop your offering by placing in an envelope trough the letter box. If you wish to request for a prayer (Mass), please make a reference "Mass".

Please Pay: RCAS Our Lady of Immaculate Conception Surrey Docks

NatWest: Account Number 60601132

Branch sort code 60-21-34

I would also appreciate if you could kindly continue to support through your donations to our parish. I understand it is difficult time for everyone. You have made sacrifices and supported our small parish through all this time. It is through your generous offerings and kindness that has made it possible to continue to sustain and maintain our parish. I am grateful to all new members who have set up a standing order to continue to support our parish.

You may choose either on a weekly, monthly, or even yearly basis. That will ensure us your continued support for the worship and upkeep of our church even when you are away or can't come to church.

However, should you wish to continue to use your weekly offering envelopes please carry on doing so. May God abundantly bless you and all your loved ones. It would have not been possible to sustain and maintain without your kind support. I appreciate it very much.
